

Ask Oncor. We Deliver.

New Oncor Open House Event Delivers – Answers, Prizes and More

Who: You, your family, our community – and members of the Plano Chamber of Commerce and the Collin County Association of Realtors

What: Oncor is putting out the welcome mat and inviting you out for an evening of delicious food and fun. Ask Oncor. We Deliver. gives you the opportunity to ask questions about electric issues that impact you and your family.

When: Thursday, May 20
5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Where: Collin County Association of Realtors Office
6821 Coit Road, Plano

Why: Meet with Oncor representatives who live and work in your community – people who understand the issues that impact you and your family. Come out and enjoy food and refreshments. While you mingle and network, your children can visit interactive exhibits and learn about safety tips from a real life safety superhero. You can also learn about:

- how saving energy can save you money
- how Oncor keeps the lights on
- how to use powertochoose.org
- how we're working together for a better environment
- how Oncor contributes to your community

Plus, learn about ways to save money on your electric bills, and register for the chance to win prizes like a $200 American Express gift card!
